

Skin Cancer Clinical Attachment

FNQH Skin Cancer Centre and Pathology offers a Skin Cancer Clinical Attachment program at our state-of-the-art FNQH Cairns Training Centre of Excellence. Our program caters to individuals at all levels, ranging from beginners to advanced skin care practitioners.

About

Our distinguished Cairns Training Centre of Excellence is recognised for its award-winning services. We offer doctors a two-day or four-day Clinical Attachment Program concentrating on all aspects of practising skin cancer medicine and dermatopathology. The training provided is consistent with the Skin Cancer College Australia (SCCA) and can aid towards pursuing a fellowship with the SCCA.

The Facility

Equipped with advanced technology, our state-of-the-art facility has dedicated surgical facilities with trained nursing and administration staff. You will have the opportunity to observe and learn about the operational and procedural aspects of skin cancer medicine. Plus, exclusive access to one-on-one support from leading practitioners, professionals and pathologists specialising in skin cancer.

The program caters to all levels of expertise, ranging from novices to experienced skincare professionals. The training centre is easily accessible, just 15 minutes from Cairns Airport and 10 minutes to accommodation and the iconic Cairns Esplanade, a focal point for locals and visitors.
